

STREET GUIDE TO THE GREATER GOLDTHWAIT NEIGHBORHOOD MARBLEHEAD, MASSACHUSETTS

This book explores stories of yore along Atlantic Avenue—from Five Corners to Preston Beach, with particular emphasis on the greater Goldthwait area. Learn why Atlantic Avenue was known as “auto alley” and how occupational therapy came to be founded in Marblehead. If you are curious as to the location of the old Elks Club, the original Star of the Sea Church, and the Irish Consulate, find out here. Before and after photos with annotations provide visual insights.

Devereux Country Club

$12.95 Profits go to Goldthwait Reservation

Contact Jackie Lynch for your copy

JLynch710@gmail.com; 781-631-0624

This document was compiled by Jacqueline Mara Lynch who assumes sole responsibility for its content. Any comments may be addressed to her at Box 790, Marblehead, MA 01945.

Copyright Jacqueline Mara Lynch
All rights reserved
May 15, 2014

Cover photo courtesy of Marblehead Historical Commission