

THE GOLDTHWAIT RESERVATION PROUDLY PRESENTS

Glovers at Goldthwait

A Marblehead 250 Series of Free Public Talks

Funded in Tribute to the late Trustee Daniel W. Shea, ensuring his deep dedication to the Goldthwait Reservation and local history continues to inspire future generations.

*Three exceptional speakers celebrate America's 250th Birthday
— exploring the extraordinary Glover family of Marblehead.*

All talks held on the grassy area at Goldthwait Beach Reservation end of Phillips Street, Marblehead

FREE Admission ~ Donations Gratefully Accepted
Free Parking (+ street parking) & Light Refreshments
Please bring your own chair (some seating provided)

Saturday, July 25 — 4:00 pm • Speaker: Robert Booth

“The Four Glover Brothers Before and During the Revolutionary War”

The adventures of a family of rebel Patriot entrepreneurs — brothers Jonathan, Samuel, John, and Daniel — in colonial Marblehead in the years leading into the Revolutionary War.

Sunday, August 23 — 4:00 pm • Speaker: Nancy Schulz

“General John Glover’s Farm and Farmhouse in Vinnin Square”

The history of the farmhouse General Glover purchased the year he remarried, just before retiring from seven long years of service in the Revolutionary War. The “Save The Glover” non-profit has been working to preserve it from demolition on July 20. Come hear why it matters.

Sunday, September 6 — 11:00 am • Speaker: Judy Anderson

“The Four Glover Brothers’ Six Wives and 28 Children”

Like many families of their time, the Glovers were large, dynamic, and complex. Their lives were filled with labor and joy, intense love, and — as in all families — many sorrows and losses. A vivid portrait of Revolutionary-era family life in Marblehead.

With gratitude and thanks to Judy Anderson for facilitating these historical events.

More Revolution 250 events with Judy Anderson:

https://marbleheadtours.com/2026_JA_Programs.pdf

For further Goldthwait Reservation information contact: fionaclubbuck@gmail.com